TECH ELEVATOR TO HOST BOT BATTLES

GALVESTON, TX – If you have considered a career in coding or would like to pursue a career in coding, Tech Elevator wants to meet you at the Galveston Esports Summit, August 25 – 27, Galveston Island Convention Center, 5700 Seawall Boulevard.

Tech Elevator, coding industry leader offers boot camps, classes, and mentoring will be at the Galveston Esports Summit. Host of the action- packed Bot Battles, located center stage at the Esports Summit, Tech Elevator is adept at moving students with no coding experience to a lucrative career as a professional coder. Expert career counseling and training from experienced instructors are key elements that launch students in the workplace. They can assist with attaining credentials, building a portfolio, and polishing interview skills to get a job.

Brian Candido, Tech Elevator, Texas Market Leader, builds community partnerships to ensure students are equipped with the skills to acquire success. He will serve on Saturday panels “Teachers & Esports Education” and “Writing, Coding & Promoting.” Complete schedule and panelists online.

“We strive to get better each year,” said Mary Jo Naschke, Galveston Esports Summit principal. “We have heavy hitting sponsors that collaborate with us to develop entertaining and educational activities and panels. Tech Elevator is taking us to the next level in coding opportunities and training that we can inform our audience about. Our goal is to provide resources that can take interests like esports, video games, and robotics, into personal growth and career development. This company’s track record speaks for itself. We welcome Tech Elevator to the Galveston Esports Summit.”

Tech Elevator is hosting Innovation Spark’s High Adrenaline Combat Robotics featured at the Galveston Esports Summit. Fights will take place each day of the event and competitors who want to mix it up can register online. Bot Battle Registration fee includes event and pit pass. Assigned pits provided for contenders. Teams are encouraged to register early.
